

CARTTER EXPOSES MONTEBELLO MITH

EXTRA

Sinking of the SS Montebello by George H. Cooper

San Simeon, October 16, 2011 -

In a special Press Conference held in front of the famed Hearst Ranch in San Simeon, California, today, George Cartter stated, "What you see in that painting by George H. Cooper is not true."

In other comments, the Hearst Castle Guide didn't go as far as to imply a cover-up, speaking of this important part of the history of World War II which has been largely ignored in our classrooms, he did say that the omission of all this information was rather odd.

"Realize," Cartter told the Press Corp, "there was a lot of preparation for World War II going on here at the Hearst Ranch property." To back up this shocking claim, Cartter said he would expose never-before-seen photos taken by his father in 1941 of the new Hunter Liggett Military Reservation, land William Randolph Hearst had just sold to the government.

Cartter said he would "tell the whole story" as it relates to San Simeon in a special presentation on Tuesday, November 15th at the Rabobank Community Meeting Room, Cambria starting at 6:30 pm.

"You supply the people," Cartter said, "and I'll supply the facts."
